Engineer T. A. Gilkey Explains Difficulties In Repairing Bridge

At the conclusion of testimony
and arguments by attorneys
Wednesday afternoon, Judge R.
L. Hildebrand took the papers in the West Washington street bridge controversy and announced that he would hand down a decision later.

The action is brought by the Zemango Motors Company and the Ludwig Company to force the removal of barricades which Mayor Perry has ordered placed across the street to prevent travel over the bridge.

Civil Engineer T. A. Gilkey who signed the improvements which were made on the bridge by the city commissioners, was the principal witness for the county. He explained the construction of the bridge, and told what had been done to strengthen it. Owing to the method of construction, he said, it had not been feasible to strengthen without leaving the open space rough the center. His explanation went fully into the technical difficulties from an engineering standpoint. He believed that the bridge would be made safe by the addition of the lights which the county commissioners are now installing.

Claims Bridge Not Safe For Traffic
In his arguments on behalf of the city, Robert M. White, city solicitor, reviewed the accidents that had occurred, arguing that the bridge was not safe for public travel or that it could not have occurred. He contended that the city does not wish to be held liable for these accidents,
and argued that the concrete abutments are in the nature of a nuisance, that the mayor had a right to remove them.

County Solicitor John P. Lockhart contended that the city has a

Resume Operations At Cement Plant

Idle stacks came to life today, and 200 men started back into regular employment when the plant of the Lehigh Portland Cement Company
on the East Side resumed production this morning.

For the past two weeks a corps of repairmen has been busy getting the plant into shape under the direction of Acting Superintendent Wesley Davy and while March 1 was set as the tentative starting date

there was some doubt whether it would be possible to get away that soon.

Some fast work on the part of the repairmen made it possible and the plant is operating.

McElwee Not Candidate For Re-Election To State Legislature, He Announces

In a statement made today, Hon.
William McElwee, Jr., member of the second district of Lawrence county, says that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

He has served two terms in the house but today takes up the duties of county solicitor and for that reason has decided not to be a candidate.

His statement follows:
McElwee's Announcement.
To the Voters of the Second Legislative District of Lawrence County:

I want to thank my friends for the loyal support they gave me in 1930 and again in 1932 when I was a candidate for Assembly. During both terms I tried to do my duty.
I am sure that I kept the faith. I served this county more than twice my aggregate salary for both terms (none of which the county paid) in the reduction of the salary of the district attorney and in the matter of the jury commissioners, both of which items are paid by the county.

New Record For Low Temperature

Figures Show Average Tem-

Normal For February

LAST DAY PROVES
COLDEST ON RECORD

February set a mark for low temperatures which has never been equalled at the local Weather Observatory station, and probably will never be lowered within the memory of anyone now living in Lawrence county.

The average temperature for the month was 14.2 degrees, just half the normal mark for February, the deficiency being 14.2 degrees per day.
The average maximum temperature for the month was less than the mean average for February, the records show, and the low temperature of 23 below zero on the last day of the month was the lowest ever recorded here.

The figures show that the mean maximum for the month was 26.9
degrees, the mean minimum, 1.75 degrees, and the average for the month was 14.2. The highest was 51 degrees on February 19, and the lowest, of course, 23 below zero on February 28. There were 13 days during the month when the temperature went below zero and one day is just touched zero. The great-

GREENWOOD, Miss., Mar. 1.—
The trial of Dr. Sara Ruth Dean for the "poison highball" murder of Dr. J. Preston Kennedy may go to the jury tonight.

Summons were to begin as soon
as court opened and about 12 hours in all probability will be taken up by both sides.

The comely child specialist who denied her dilemma as that of loving two men at the same time is given more than an even chance of acquittal.

State Claims Murder
In the summations, the state will maintain that the defendant poisoned Dr. Kennedy, her erstwhile sweetheart, in a fury because he intended to remarry his divorced wife.

The defense will insist that Dr.
Dean had already broken off the love affair at the time of the alleged poisoning, that she had become engaged to Capt. Franklin Maull, a Delaware harbor pilot, and that it was Dr. Kennedy who took to heart
the shattering of the romance.
As the case nears its climax, Dr.

THREE PHASE RELIEF PLAN IS OUTLINED

"Stranded Populations" To

Rural Residents

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Presi-

details of one of the biggest jobs he has tackled—that of putting into operation a general relief program broad enough to deal the depression
a major blow in all its phases.

The general outline of the program already has been drawn. It will handle relief in three phases.
Relief will be extended to (1) to the rural citizens; (2) to the so-called "stranded populations," those living in cities now "economically dead" because of the shutdown or removal of the single industry which supported the community, and (3)
to the unemployed in the cities.

Plan To Rebuild Burned School

Citizens Authorize Board Of Perry Township To Proceed With Plans

CONSOLIDATION
PLAN DISCUSSED

Following a meeting held in Pleasant Hill Grange hall last evening, taxpayers of Perry township, passed a motion in which it was stated, that the sense of the meeting was that the Wurtemburg school, destroyed by fire early in January, should be rebuilt. Confidence in the judgment of the directors in whatever plan they adopted, was expressed.

The sentiment of those present
was unanimous that the destroyed building should be rebuilt, but there was some difference in opinion as to whether consolidation should be adopted at this time. A majority of those present, however, seemed to be in favor of consolidation.

At the present time, there are five one-room buildings situated in the northern and eastern part of the township, which house 104 pupils.
In the point where Wurtemburg is located, there are 147 pupils, who attended the building which was destroyed.

Present plans call for construction of a four or six room building to house the pupils in the Wurtemburg district, which could be added to in case consolidation is decided upon later.

No answer has been received from the state, relative to what financial aid, if any, will be extended to the stricken district.

VERDICT FOR HANGING IN KIDNAPING CASE

Two Kidnapers To Get Death Penalty

Coast Jury Renders First Verdict Under New California Law

ONE OF CONVICTED MEN PLEADS INSANITY

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, Mar. 1.—For kidnaping and torturing Attorney Henry Bodkin in a hold-up Dec. 16, Harry C. Brooks and William Tanner today had been convicted by a jury that voted to hang both defendants. The death verdict was the first to be returned under California's new anti-kidnaping law.

The court ordered Brooks to appear Monday for sentence. Tanner was to be tried today on his alternate plea of not guilty by reason of insanity.

The state charged that Brooks and Tanner waylaid Bodkin in his garage, forced him to enter his home, robbed him of $43 and $1700 in jewelry and then turned his hands in an effort to compel him to reveal other money believed to be in the house.

In spite of the fact that the ground is covered with snow and the mercury hovers about the zero mark, a few robins have left their southern sojourns and have been seen in the neighborhood of the city. Mrs. Harvey Snyder, Volant, R. D. 3 told Pa News this morning that she had seen a robin hopping about her yard Wednesday afternoon.

Boy Scouts are still collecting household furniture, bedding and clothing, according to the local scout office. Did you tear off another month on your calendar today? It's hard to believe the second month's gone, but true.

The lowest temperature noted during the night was eight degrees below zero, at the New Castle Works. Temperatures submitted to the government are recorded at 9 o'clock every morning. Yesterday morning, when the thermometer was set, the temperature was 19 below zero, which would be the lowest in the 24-hour period ending at 9 o'clock this morning.

Pa News heard a cardinal whistling cheerily this morning and finally located him in the top of a big tree. Maybe this is a sign that it is going to warm up a bit.

All drivers of autos in Pennsylvania need the new 1934 drivers license to operate a car today. The old license permits expired at midnight.

Announcement of Attorney Wm. McElwee, Jr., that he is not a candidate for re-election to the state legislature this year, will leave a free-for-all race in Lawrence county for the Republican nomination at the May primaries.

Pa News notes a new idea in bird feeding these wintry days. At a number of homes, bread and bird food are being placed on empty flower boxes on porches and at windows.

Some persons are unkind. Take, for instance, this: A gentleman on The News, who shared his way to work this morning found on his desk when he arrived a postal card with a glaring red sunset, mailed by a friend in Florida. The friend, Charles L. Brennenman, partner of a local grocery firm, probably doesn't know how much it irritated his friend here to read the line, "and here it's hot—right now it's 80 in the shade." Then he went on to tell about his fishing. Interesting for us!

Residents of the South Side, have been taking a short cut across Neshannock Creek at the foot of Mercer street, since the river has been frozen over. There are several well-defined paths going across the ice at this point.

Harry L. Hopkins, will be in charge. Mr. Roosevelt expects to finance his expanded program on the $500,000,000 congress allotted for relief next year, and from the $950,000,000 appropriation, which included emergency relief needs for the remainder of the present fiscal year, ending June 30.

Work relief will form the backbone of the program. The president wishes to wean farmers from the policy of raising a single cash crop and persuade them to raise diversified crops, capable of feeding families. Efforts will be made to provide some sort of seasonal industrial employment in the rural areas.

The program for the "stranded population" group, embracing about 300,000 families according to present figures, will entail removal of these families to more fertile economic fields. Homesteading and similar measures probably will be included.

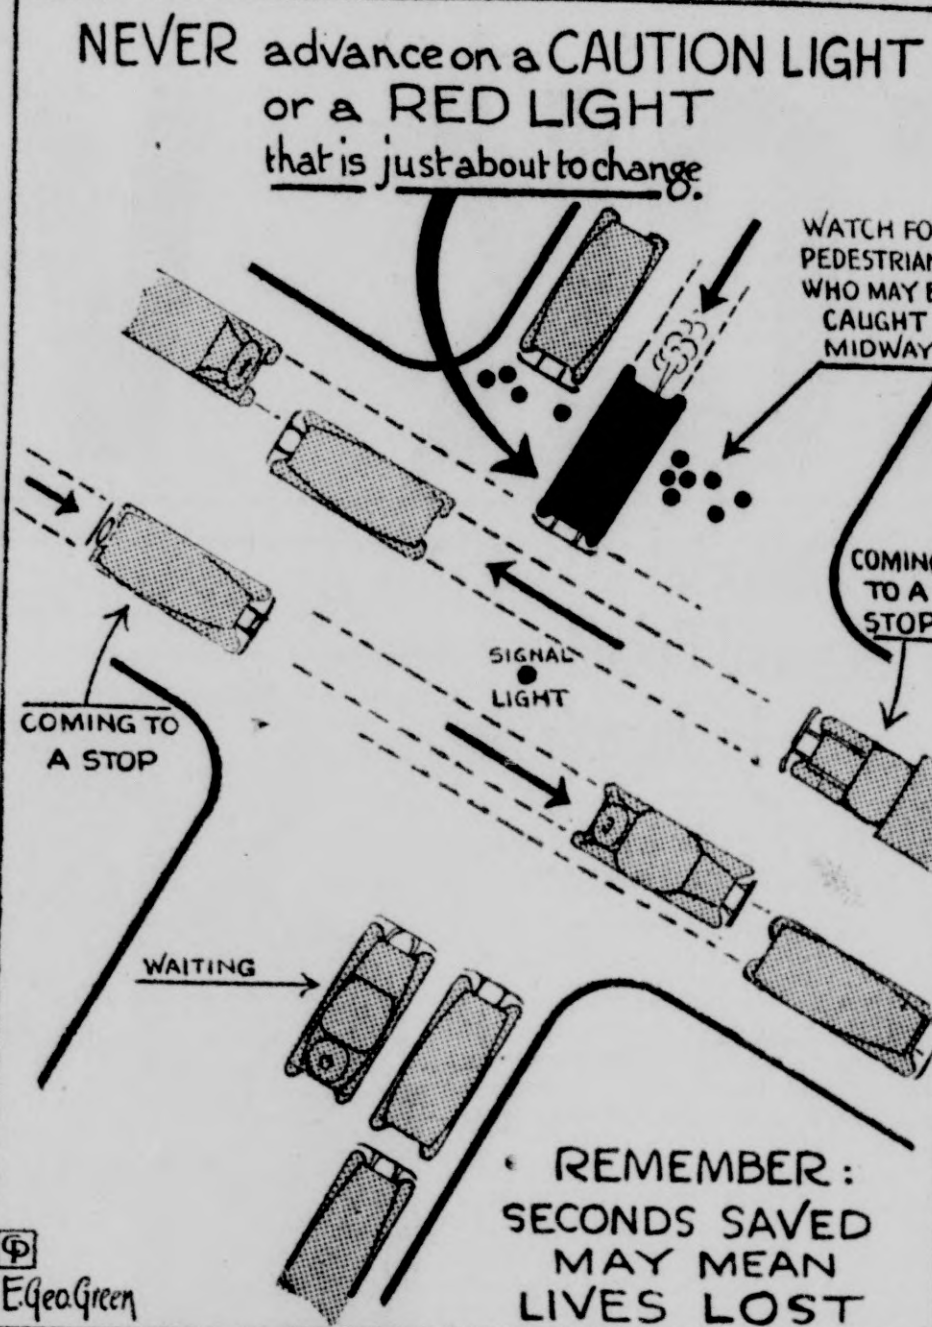

For urban unemployed, efforts will be directed toward a national program of work-relief. Civic organizations and similar bodies will be asked to draft programs of work which under ordinary circumstances would not be carried out at this time.

McELWEE NOT CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

I was "dry" and I remain "dry". I do not believe that this country will become either rich or righteous by drinking intoxicating liquors. The income tax bill that I wrote, introduced and got well advanced on the calendar, would have relieved real estate of all taxes except on the basis of the income it was capable of producing. The measure was just a little in advance of these times, but was carefully studied and favorably commented upon by the best students of the subject of taxation in the house. In company with others from this section I helped save the appropriation for the Pymatung dam when it was in grave danger and got the moral support of the General Assembly for the canal to the Ohio river. I worked day and night in the performance of my duties as a legislator, and I gained the respect and confidence of my associates who agreed with me and of those that did not agree with me. During my term of service more than 200 miles of township roads were taken over as state highways and the maintenance, construction and reconstruction of most of the city and borough streets that connect with state highways have been placed on the commonwealth. I did not do all of this, but I helped to do all of it.

Believing that my record entitled me to a third term and that my experience and standing made it of advantage to my district I intended to run again.

Having this day taken up the duty of conducting the legal matters connected with the office of the county commissioners, I now announce that I will not be a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

Very sincerely,
WILLIAM McELWEE, JR.

COURT RESERVES DECISION AFTER BRIDGE EVIDENCE

streets in a passable condition. If the city neglects to ash the approaches, during such weather as we have been having, it is liable. The county, he said, had been charged with the duty of repairing the bridge, and did it under the direction of a competent engineer. The county had also been willing to co-operate with the city in erecting warning signals, but before they could get the signals up the mayor declared that the bridge would be closed in 48 hours. He questioned the good faith of a threat of that kind. Attorney Lockhart denied the right of any city, under the law, to substitute its authority for that of the county which is given the right to exercise its judgment in such matters.

No Right To Close Bridge

Attorney William McElwee Jr., for the plaintiffs discussed the statutes relating to the construction and maintenance of highways. He contended that where the rights of the city and county are involved, the county occupies the superior position, according to supreme court decisions, as it is the larger unit of government, and includes cities, boroughs and townships. He argued that the city had no right, under the law, to supersede the government of the county, and therefore had no right to close the bridge.

He pointed out that after the mayor had issued his order to close the bridge in 48 hours, "jackpots" had been used to light it at night. If the jackpots made it safe during that period, he contended that it will be made safe by the lights now being installed and should be thrown open for traffic.

Attorney Alvah Shumaker, for the plaintiffs, cited a Beaver county case where there was a sharp curve at the bottom of a hill near Fals-ton. So many accidents occurred at this curve that the borough barricaded and closed the street. The case was carried into court, with the result that the obstructions were ordered removed, the court holding that the borough had no right to barricade the street, since the county is the higher unit of government. Attorney Shumaker argued that the same holds true in the case of the West Washington street bridge.

LINDBERGH BABY KIDNAPED JUST TWO YEARS AGO

connection with the noted mystery. A million, at least, amateur detectives, are alert for a clue to the puzzling case.

Hundreds of "tips" continue to pour into local and federal authorities.

More Than Mystery

The kidnaping of the baby son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh was more than a major mystery. It undoubtedly stimulated the wave of abductions in recent years. It also crystallized public opinion against the underworld.

From that grim incident when the Lindbergh baby was snatched from its crib at night, the federal authorities have almost a perfect record in bringing kidnapers to justice. Will its enviable record be crowned eventually with the capture of the Lindbergh criminal or criminals?

Only time will tell.

Opinions Differ

The magnitude of the crime has caused its solution.

There are two schools of thought on the subject of motivation. Some still think that an audacious, ruthless and ingenious gang perpetrated it. Others cling to the theory that a maniac, working alone, plucked the innocent baby from its second-story nursery at Hopewell, N. J., on the night of March 1, 1932.

Our opinion of the 13-month calendar depends on whether the extra month is a June or a January.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rain' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a tick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Your skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Request a satisfaction, Sweet drug stores, 1931 C. M. Co.

tion, the body was identified by a tag issued to him at the Wolf Rock camp of the CCC near Philipsburg, Pa. Boarding the train at Rochester, Pa., the youth was enroute to his camp when the crash, which sent two score persons to hospitals, occurred.

Two interstate commerce commission representatives joined state officials in viewing the scene of the tragedy and inspecting equipment prior to a public hearing Monday to determine the cause of the disaster.

Robert Tonkin and H. D. Lyon arrived here from Washington and began a study of the wreck with H. E. Nason, Pittsburgh representative of the I. C. C. Guy Johnson, special investigator for the Pennsylvania public service commission, has been on the scene, surveying the entire layout since Tuesday.

"We cannot make public any of our findings until our complete report is made in Washington," Lyon said. "We cannot tell how long our investigation will take, but it will be thorough, intensive and a detailed study of the whole situation."

The investigators see no possibility of making a complete report to Washington in less than two weeks. The battered and crushed coaches and locomotive, all removed from the scene, will be examined thoroughly to determine if defective equipment could have caused the smash-up.

At least four of those injured were reported in a serious condition at hospitals. They are Walter C. Shank, 55, Pittsburgh, a Pennsylvania railroad conductor, and George W. Anderson, New Wilmington, both in Presbyterian hospital; Mrs. Lottie Moyer, Youngstown, and John Williams, 30, New Brighton, in Allegheny hospital.

DEAN CASE MAY GO TO JURORS BY NIGHTFALL

Dean continues to improve in spirits and appearance. Taking the stand in her own behalf, her quiet and incisive manner proved her to be the best witness of the entire defense array.

Much of her testimony involved Capt. Maull, the man whom she claimed she was to have married on August 8, 1933, shortly after Dr. Kennedy's death.

Loved Two Men
Questioned about the reported denial by Captain Maull in Philadelphia that he intended to marry Dr. Dean—the young pediatricist refused to make any comment.

On the stand, Dr. Dean read several letters she said she had received from Capt. Maull. She explained:

"I loved two men. It was an unfortunate situation, but it was so."

Rash on Legs. Could Not Work. Lost Sleep. Healed by Cuticura.

"I had an itching which spread into a rash on my legs and kept spreading and swelling. The skin was red and sore so much that my legs were swollen for many days. My clothing aggravated the breaking out and made it itch more when I perspired. I could not do my regular work, I was so sore, and I lost many nights of sleep.

"I started to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment and noticed a difference right away, and I only used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I was healed." (Signed) Miss Martha Cline, Leechburg, Pa., June 17, 1933.

little Danderine will keep it from going helter-skelter. When you pay a dollar for a wave, Danderine will help you keep it. It isn't sticky dressing, or an oily tonic, and it doesn't leave a telltale odor. Its fresh fragrance is gone so quickly after applying—but not that very marvelous effect of freshness and cleanliness!

With all the care a woman gives her hair, it is a pity to omit this last touch that means so much. It is no trouble. Yet you can hardly believe anything so mild and delightful as Danderine could bring such a change in the condition and appearance of hair and scalp. Just try it. You can buy Danderine at any drug store for thirty-five cents; larger sizes for 60c and $1.00.

That's what moistening your comb with a few drops of Danderine will do. And no amount of dry-combing will ever do. Nearly all hair needs the help that Danderine gives it. A dash of Danderine morning and night when you comb it, makes an amazing difference in the way any hair looks all the time!

JUST A COMMON WORKING MAN

Please, if you will, look over my shoulder while I read a letter that has just come to me. And tell me if it has the same effect on you that it has on me.

"I wonder," says this letter, "if you have ever met a man like the one I am telling you about. He is just a common working man. I have known him for a number of years. But never met anyone like him. No matter what happens he never gets mad, or loses his temper. Summer or autumn, rain or fine. Thunder or lightning. Prosperity or poverty. Sickness or death, which comes to his family. Makes no difference to his disposition, it is always the same. I myself have been sore with him many times and said unpleasant things. I have heard others rave at him but it makes no difference. He is always cool what ever is said or done.

"How does he get that way? Do you think he was born that way or does he have such control over his Mind and Body that it does not matter what anyone says or does it can't affect him in the least. His wife tells me he is wonderful and all the years they have been married she has never known him any different. And if he was not the same all the time, she would surely know. I am just a common working man myself, with hardly any education, which you will easily find out yourself when you read this. I don't know if you will have time or if it is worth reading. I am not like him, but just the opposite. Hasty. Sometimes bad tempered. Sometimes I say things that I regret. But when I am in his company and see him so cool at all times and under all circumstances I wish I was like him.

"You can answer this in your column or put it in your waste basket."

I could not put that letter in my waste basket, neither can I answer it. But I can sit here and wonder about that man who never loses his temper and sympathizes with his friend who wishes he could be like him. I, too, in my heart wish the same. Because I am like that friend who is hasty and loses his temper and says things he sometimes regrets. And I, too, look with wonder and awe that amounts almost to reverence upon my friend who remains calm and steady in all the storms of life. Sometimes I say to myself that he was born as he is and deserves no more credit for his steadiness than I deserve blame for my difference. But sometimes in a humble mood, I think that he has built up his fineness of character out of a multitude of small victories over his weaker nature—and that you or I or any man might do the same if we would give ourselves to the attainment of the ideal that has become the easy habit of his days.

P. S.: But, though I grew up in a little town and have known many working men in my life, I have never yet met one whom I would describe as a "common working man." I have read of him. I have heard him spoken of, but so far I have never met him in the flesh.

THE female member of the New York Aquarium staff, who, indignant that boys had killed a goldfish placed in a park fountain, observed that "normal boys wouldn't do such a thing" betrayed a woeful ignorance of the ways of boyhood.

SMALLER CITIES FOR FRIENDSHIP

Most young men and women who have jobs in smaller cities long to go to the larger centers for employment in their special lines.

Remuneration is larger but so also is expenses and demands are greater.

There is less sentiment in business in any large city.

Employees are not given the consideration they are accorded in the smaller places.

There is a demand for experts—less tolerance toward errors.

It might surprise many young persons to learn the number of persons holding jobs and position in cities who would trade their willingness for the more secure places of those employed in smaller places.

Only the person who has been reared in a city and therefore has a number of school friends is able to establish many close friendships in later life.

Friendships formed by those who go to cities in their adult years are confined very largely to persons met in places of employment.

In churches and other places, people also are met, to be sure, but usually those persons have their own little circles of friends and are not particularly anxious to add to the number.

Such friendships have not the stability acquired during school days and carried on through a lifetime.

Russians under Stalin and Italians under Mussolini are freemen compared with Germans under Hitler, if the Germans are sincere in their pledge of fealty to the Chancellor is the conclusion of the Philadelphia Inquirer. Hitler is a liege lord who leads his people back to the thirteenth century. The marvel of it is that four million Germans the other day took this oath:

"I swear unshakable fidelity to Adolf Hitler and unquestioning obedience to him and the leaders designated for me by him."

Unquestioning obedience! There is a phrase the former Kaiser never thought of. The Russians have more finesse. Certainly Hannibal and Xerxes, Charlemagne and King Arthur never required a more servile pledge.

Knowledge of such an oath in the modern world is likely to weaken faith in humanity's struggle and to lessen hope for the world's future. There is reassurance in the thought that such medievalism is a rare manifestation, and that other nations, the United States for example, may be counted upon to hold the ramparts against political feudalism as expressed in one-man domination.

Telling modern young people "Not" stops them the way yelling "whoa!" at an auto will stop it.

It is easier to understand why a woman should be a man hater after you see the one she married.

The man who borrows from a poor widow and never repays is the one who borrows on his life insurance.

So, 28 DEDUCTION FOR TRAVELING EXPENSES

To obtain a deduction for traveling expenses, which form an important item in the returns of many taxpayers, certain regulations must be observed. The taxpayer is required to attach to his return a statement showing the nature of business in which engaged, number of days away from home during the taxable year on account of business, total amount of expense incidental to meals and lodging, and total amount of "other expenses" incidental to travel and claimed as a deduction. Among the "other expenses" are tips, provided they are reasonable in amount.

Traveling expenses are deductible only when the trip is on business.

Advocates of the soldier's bonus have urged their followers not to start another bonus march. Washington is cluttered up already with senate investigation witnesses.

Another striking illustration of the way civilization has softened up the Red Man is contained in the story that four of them were killed recently in a dispute over a game of checkers.

THE MAN WHO STUBBED HIS TOE

An' like as not you'll find he's some poor chap that's stubbed his toe. He was makin' swimmin' headway, but he bumped into a stone, an' his friends all hurried forward, an' left him here alone.

He ain't a doin' for an' sniffin', he's too old for tears an' cries.

But he's grievin' just as earnest, if it only comes in sighs.

An' it does a heap of good sometimes to go a little slow.

The weather during the past few days prompted George Muse to break out into a torrent of poetry he learned as a youth, which is very apropos to the occasion. It runs something like this:

As a rule, man is a fool;
When it's hot, he wants it cool.
When it's cool, he wants it hot.
Always wanting what it's not.

The World At A Glance

Senator McCarran Gives Shivers

Getting Farley on Stand

Wallace Is New Literary Light

By LESLIE EICHEL

Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Mar. 1.—It's Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada who gives the chills to Wall Street—among the newer senators. He was a "country prosecutor," and maintains the general shrewdness inherent in backwoods' legal talent—at least that's what the Big Town says.

Senator Hugo Black of Alabama is viewed as cutting the spotlight in the airmail investigation. But it's the few questions that Senator McCarran asks, or the notes that he passes, which upset folk.

Senator Bennett Champ Clark of Missouri is another who is looked upon as a "disturber." Incidentally, he is assayed as having one of the best minds in the senate.

ON SPOT
Word is going around in New York that the Republicans outwitted the Democrats in getting Postmaster General Farley on the witness stand in the airmail investigation hearing. But the Democrats say he had the last word.

The Republicans desired to "prove" that President Roosevelt, not Postmaster General Farley, actually ordered the airmail contracts canceled.

In particular did the Republicans desire to have Senator Warren Robinson Austin, dyed-in-the-wool G. O. P., of Vermont, question Farley.

The opportunity came about when Brown told of a "mysterious" remark that Farley made to him—but which he would not repeat.

Farley came as a witness, denied any remark. For three hours, Senator Austin battled with Farley.

But Farley continued to assert that he canceled the contracts on sufficient evidence—and sprung another letter, allegedly written by former Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover, which Senator Austin read aloud.

The final words in the letter brought a chuckle to the Democrats. They were: "We had all better stick together or we'll all hang together."

Of course, Farley denied that he said what Brown said he remarked: "Farley is just a publicity hound."

FARLEY
Farley is a mystery—in New York, at least.

Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, with the aid of Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, is fighting desperately for his economy measure for New York City.

Farley says he is for the bill. Yet a single word from him to Democrats who oppose it would permit its passage in the New York state assembly.

LITERARY LEADER
Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, has surprised writers and book publishers.

This talented young farm paper publisher from Iowa has written the most widely read piece of literature of present-day America.

It is a brochure for the Foreign Policy association and the World Peace Foundation.

No fewer than three New York papers are running it simultaneously. Papers elsewhere also are beginning it. And the call for the pamphlet by mail is large.

Wallace writes on the economic path that the United States must choose.

As one paper headlines it: "Secretary Wallace says that we must set ourselves for Nationalism, Internationalism or a Planned Middle Course—one of the three—and points out the 'enormously difficult adjustments' we must make in any case."

STRIKING PARAGRAPHS
Among the most striking paragraphs in the Wallace brochure are:

"A clean-cut program of planned international trade or barter would be far less likely to get us into war. I think than the attempts to function internationally as sellers, yet nationally as buyers, inaugurated under Presidents Harding and Coolidge, and followed by President Hoover."

"Such tactics pursued in the past by older nations led to bloody foreclosure proceedings, at the point of guns."

"Not dissimilar current programs in other countries have created a dangerous degree of tension throughout the civilized world, and there are many who think that sooner or later the pressure will be bound to blow itself off in another orgy of human killing. We have blown off pressure that way very often in the past."

"It comes to this: If we insist upon selling without buying, we have to lend our surplus to foreign countries, and never take it back. It stays abroad. But we think we still own it, and that makes us figure out ways and means of keeping the investment safe. We must have some security that transcends the good faith of the borrower. There is no surer path to war."

"The method of reciprocal trade on the other hand, leads to peace. It makes no sales without providing opportunities for the buyers to pay the bill. Since the bill does not remain outstanding indefinitely, all does not have to be collected at the point of a gun, it makes new business easy to get and profitable."

The administration, from all indications, is choosing the middle path of reciprocal trade. But that requires considerable education of the public mind. Thus the Wallace brochure.

THURSDAY, MAR 1

Historic Anniversaries 1468-69—William Caxton began, at Bruges, France, translation of Recueil of the Histories of Troy, from the French.

After he completed it, in September, the work kept copyists busy supplying manuscripts. They were so much in demand among wealthy English who were able to read that Caxton was led to investigate and consider a new invention called printing as a means of speeding up multiplication of copies. After he had seen some works of Caxton, Faust, Schoeffer and Gutenberg, he financed a press and font of type for one Colard Mansion, became the first English printer. The Recital of the History of and The Game and Play of Chess were the first books ever printed in English.

1711—Initial issue of the Spectator, edited by Joseph Addison, 39, and Richard Steele, 39, appeared in London. It was the first attempt, made in England, or any other country, to instruct and amuse unlearned readers by short papers, appearing daily and selling for pennies. The object of the writers was "to bring philosophy out of closets and libraries, schools and colleges, to dwell in clubs, and assemblies, at tea-tables and at coffee-houses." They succeeded so well the Spectator Papers have been read ever since, and Addison and Steele have made a permanent impress upon journalism.

1781—Articles of confederation and perpetual union were signed by delegates of 13 colonies and the United States of America came into being. After Maryland had blocked the compact for two years, Maryland delegates won their demand, the public lands west of the Ohio were recognized to be the property of all the states by the states (Virginia, Massachusetts, etc., claimed them), the last obstacle to the union was removed.

1867—Nebraska ("Wide river") became the 37th state. Motto: Equality before the law. Flower: goldenrod.

1932—Most celebrated unsolved crime in American history was committed: Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., 20 months-old, was kidnapped from the home near Hopewell, N. J.

tables, not flowers, were decorations of the Welsh on their greatest holiday. Welshmen always wore a leek on March 1, feast day of St. David, their patron saint. The custom was inspired by the example of the Welshmen who put leeks in their hats to identify themselves to each other in a battle in which they won a notable victory over the English.

Forgotten Heroes — John Scott Harrison, (1804-1878). The only man to be both the son and the father of a U. S. President, he was not a success in politics himself. Nor was he a success in medicine or law, two professions he entered; he spent most of his years as a farmer, died before his son entered the White House.

PREDESTINATION—OLD SUBJECT

A letter, written by John Wesley, in reply to a correspondent who apparently had asked him for advice on the kind of a woman to marry, was recently sold at a London auction for $125. The letter addressed to Peter Garforth, Skipton-Craven, Yorkshire, follows:

"My Dear Brother: A person with all the qualifications you mention is not every day to be met with. I do not recollect such an one at present. If I meet with or think of one, I will send you word.

"I advise you not by any means to entangle yourself with a predestinarian. A sensible well-tempered woman, fearing God, the not much awakened is far preferable.

"Wishing you may have light from God in that and all things, I am, your affectionate brother,

Aimee McPherson Will Not Oppose Husband's Action

Evangelist Will Not Think Of Filing For Divorce, But Will Allow Her Husband

Regrets Publicity Given To Husband During Her Stay In Europe

In a tearful interview in which she wept freely, Aimee McPherson Hutton today told International News Service she had definitely decided that her separation from her husband, David Hutton, would be permanent but that her religious principles would not permit her to institute divorce proceedings. She would not stand in the way however, she said, of Hutton taking action. She revealed for the first time that a financial settlement has been made with Hutton and that in the event he divorces her she will insist on restoration of her former name with which she signed the following article:

By AIMEE SEMPLE McPHERSON (Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

COLUMBIA, S. C., Mar. 1.—I have decided that I must let my husband, Mr. David Hutton go the divorce if there is to be one.

How can I do otherwise with the words of God ringing in my ears? I have spent months in prayer asking God to direct me in this unhappy situation, to show me the way.

And he has spoken to me. Regardless of the circumstances—regardless of whether I have been wronged—I cannot be true to God and at the same time divorce Mr. Hutton.

No Opposition. Realize, of course, that society dictates that a husband should always let the wife secure the divorce, but if Mr. Hutton wishes a divorce I will not oppose him.

Something must be done. I feel like a child with a string tied around an aching tooth and attached to a doorknob, waiting for the door to be opened.

Oh, I regret so much that circumstances during my absence from America engulfed Mr. Hutton in a stream which led him into paths which seem to be other than the paths of God's leading.

Married For Love. When I married him, my heart was overflowing with love for him. When I placed my heart and happiness in his keeping I thought it would be forever. We were both working as God directed us. It was God's work that we were doing together.

I regret that so much publicity has been given this unfortunate event. I cannot help but feel that, probably unknowingly, Mr. Hutton has allowed others to commercialize on it—to take something which was sacred to me and make money out of it.

Property Settlement. I have made a settlement with Mr. Hutton concerning my personal property.

I want it understood definitely that the only reason I make this statement now is that there may never be a question in the mind of any person as to where I stand. I stand on the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ—the four-square gospel.

State Farmers Got $6,388 For Hogs In Emergency Move

Farmers Of Nation Were Paid $30,643,101 During Hog Buying Campaign

During the two months Uncle Sam purchased from farmers of the nation 640,866 hogs and pigs for $30,643,101. Of these 1,354 head were bought from Pennsylvania farmers for $6,388. Through the program Ohio farmers got $1,919,576 and West Virginia farmers received $38,593.

Of the 640,866 head purchased 5,104,884 were destroyed, being converted into inedible products of grease and fertilizer tankage. Only the small balance were converted into meat.

Miniature Book House At Library

Cleverly built by several members of the New Castle Library staff, is a miniature book house, in the children's department.

Built like any other house, with a roof, windows and doors, the outside of the small house is covered with "book jackets." When the youngsters visit the library, they sit around the table where the house rests, and look around for suggestion as to the books to read.

Probably 100 or more jackets cover the miniature home. The children get some mighty good suggestions as to the books to read. "The Real Mother Goose," "So-phia," "King of the Hills," "The Golden Flute," and "Winnie the Poor" are some of the titles of books, which have been pasted around the outside walls of the small house.

Forestry Work Halts In Snow-Bound Camp Thomas

By FRANK BOWES (Special To The News)

CAMP LOWELL THOMAS, C. C. C., Trout Run, Pa., Feb. 28.—A nearly snow-bound camp site greeted the eyes of the men here this week. Early Sunday morning saw the thermometer rising from sub-zero temperatures and the first flakes of snow. For thirty hours the snow continued, resulting with a blanket of snow ranging from a foot to 18 inches, covering the entire countryside. For the first time this winter thoughts of cleaning the snow from the camp to the highway so that supplies could get through greeted the officers.

Forestry work is at a standstill. So far this is the record snowfall of the year.

Forestry education through the motion picture proved their value on Sunday evening. The state department of agriculture sends the machine and forestry reels. This machine covers a certain number of camp in this area. Other short reels are rented out of the Company funds to add to the entertainment of these pictures. The forestry reels were on "Trees of Tomorrow" which is replanting cut-over areas. The second reel was on fire, how it is fought, and its destruction. The scenes were in the National Parks in the west with the fire fighters on the front and also how the battle is fought at headquarters.

The fire towers, the airplane, the transportation of men and supplies to the front. The third reel was "Crops and Kilowatts." This was also how forest helps to supply mountain streams with a steady flow of water. These mountain streams are harnessed to supply electric power, forms pure drinking water for the towns, and irrigation projects. The irrigation turns a barren semi-desert valleys into a fertile and crop bearing land. Also six short organ interludes reels were shown to break up the monotony of the evening.

AROUND CITY HALL

If the mayor's desk in police court could talk it would tell many stories as it was the "bench" used by the late Judge Wallace in Lawrence county court about 28 years ago. It was given the city when the late Judge Porter took office. Many sentences following conviction on serious charges were pronounced over the desk.

Oh Father, Oh Father, Come Home With Me Now..... He got his pay and went to a beer emporium. His wife followed him. She needed the money because their child is ill with scarlet fever. They had trouble in the place. She is supposed to have shoved him against a window ledge. His head was so badly lacerated he had to be taken to a hospital.

Bids for the purchase of a new 1934 five-passenger automobile will be opened by city clerk March 19, according to the city clerk. The automobile will be used by street department officers. Bids opened recently for a 1933 car were considered too high and rejected.

It cost Willis McMullen, fingerprint clerk, only 75 cents to fingerprint a thousand men. One tube of ink is sufficient for that many men. The federal government furnishes the cards and frank envelopes for matter to be sent to the department of justice. The city pays its photographing costs.

Judge Says Dictatorships Are Destroying Liberties; Lauds 'Jury Trial' System

Judge James A. Chambers fears that Europe's great dictatorships movements—Germany's, Russia's, Italy's and all—are leading directly away from the basis upon which our liberties are founded, and he prescribes "trial by jury" as the instrument by which dictatorships may be avoided and the liberties of peoples preserved.

The New Castle Kiwanis club heard the local county jurist make these expressions as he spoke before its weekly luncheon in The Castle-ton on Wednesday. "Trial by Jury" was the judge's theme. President Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand introduced him as his "co-laborer on the bench."

After interestingly reviewing the foundation of English jurisprudence, with the security of life, liberty and property guaranteed in the famous Magna Charta, Judge Chambers declared that today too many are of the belief that we have passed the place of having our liberties protected and that our security is well established for all time. "Have we?" he then asked, turning to Europe's present situation.

Of Germany, Russia and Italy he spoke, referring in each case to the controlling powers which hold in their hands the liberty of their respective peoples.

"We all recognize today, in these times of economic trial," Judge Chambers continued, "these trends toward dictatorships. In a country where there are jury trials there can be no dictatorships, and so before we scrap this institution we ought to consider what we're throwing away."

There has been criticism of our jury system, criticism perhaps which was justified, and there has probably been more criticism of it here in America than in England, it was pointed out.

But Judge Chambers told the Kiwanians that "English people don't run to the judge to be excused as soon as they're called upon to serve in court; they consider it, on the contrary, a high, important and holy duty; they feel that they're officers of the court as long as they are jurors, and they feel that by their service they are exercising a function of the preservation of their own liberties as well as the liberties of those whom they have on trial."

And coming to the jury box in that frame of mind, the judge declared, fits one for rendering just verdicts in the case which happens to be at the bar.

"You in a jury box," Mr. Chambers emphatically asserted, "are just as much a part of the administration of justice as is the court on the bench or the lawyer at the bar. And if we have conscientious jurors, jurors who will contribute all their intelligence, justice and integrity to the rendering of decisions, then their own protection will be preserved and criminals will get their just deserts."

Judge Chambers said that nowadays jury service is a subject almost as common as the weather and he said that oftentimes one may hear despairing remarks about it. However, he assured his auditors that trials by jury will ever continue to be the safest form by which liberties of peoples will be preserved.

The county jurist, in closing, while warning that "in the light of present world affairs the trial by jury continues to be the surest safeguard and preserver of our liberty," reminded the clubmen that legislatures, bar associations and judicial conferences cannot bring about a complete "cleanup" of our jury lists—and he referred particularly to those in larger cities—without the backing of the citizenry.

Both Judge Chambers and Judge Hildebrand are Kiwanians.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

Saves Good Money! No Cooking!

If you want the best cough remedy that money can buy, mix it at home. It costs very little, yet it's the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs, giving immediate relief, is astonishing.

Charges Newspaper Censorship Sought

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—A new move aimed at restricting freedom of the press was seen today by Senator Schall (R) of Minnesota, in the proposed federal communications commission proposed to congress by President Roosevelt.

The commission would regulate interstate communications, telegraph, radio and telephone, in much the same manner that the interstate commerce commission now regulates the railroads.

Schall, a consistent critic of Roosevelt policies, issued a statement which charged the administration with seeking "newspaper censorship." It said:

"The newspapers of the United States are about to have themselves censored. After battling for months to force the Roosevelt Administration to guarantee 'freedom of the press' in the publishers code they now find themselves confronted with the very same censorship by the demand of the president for a federal communications commission. Under such a commission every press dispatch and every cable message can be censored by the administration. What have the newspapers gained by their code fight if they permit their news dispatches to be censored?"

"With such a system as suggested by the president not one word of the Skulduggery committee in Washington could reach the people of the United States. Not a publisher up to date has sensed the danger in the demand sent to congress. What the newspapers and the people of the United States need most at the present moment is a legislative bureau in Washington to follow all legislation introduced and see to it that the dictatorship now in the making is thwarted."

Grand Jurors Who Will Pass Upon Croton Viaduct

Men And Women Who Will Say Whether Or Not It Is To Be Built

Grand jurors who have been summoned for quarter sessions court next week will be faced with the proposition of whether or not the Croton avenue viaduct is to be built. The viaduct, as is generally known is to extend from Croton avenue, near the intersection of Crawford, across the Neshannock creek to Lincoln avenue.

County commissioners made application to the Public Works Administration for money with which to build the viaduct at the same time they asked a loan for a new court house. Loans for both propositions have been authorized, but before the viaduct can be built, it is necessary that it receive favorable action at the hands of the grand jury.

The appropriation that has been passed for it includes a grant or a gift of $57,180, and a loan of $192,820. The loan is to be secured by four per cent bonds to be issued by the county. If favorable action is taken the project must be started within two months of the signing of the contract, and must be completed within 12 months.

The court has fixed Wednesday,

March 7 at 9 a. m., as a time for hearing testimony both for and against the viaduct, by the grand jury. A big crowd is expected at the hearing. The grand jury before which the proposition is to be laid is as follows:

- Catherine Bender, housekeeper, Wayne.
- John A. Black, farmer, Washington.

Counterfeiting Newest "Racket"

Bootlegging Channels Stopped, Criminals Turn To Counterfeiting Activities

FEDERAL AGENTS ARE KEPT BUSY

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—With the suppression of one federal crime it has been the invariable rule that one or more others appear to take its place.

Despite the continuance of high prices for legitimate intoxicants, bootlegging was held on the wane today by the federal authorities.

In place of this federal offense a veritable flood of counterfeiting of paper money has developed to tax the facilities of the secret service.

Agents On Alert
Belief prevailed that many bootleggers and other elements of the criminal cross section of the Nation, deprived of income from the illicit liquor business and harassed by the federal authorities in racketeering and kidnapping, have turned to counterfeiting.

Thousands of dollars worth of spurious paper was said to be in circulation. The public was warned to be on the alert for "bad" money, since much of it is of excellent imitation.

Much of the "bad" has been passed, even going through the banks for deposit, undetected until it reaches the federal reserve banks.

Roosevelt Kin In Trip Around World

Miss Leila Roosevelt With Woman Companion Undertakes Adventurous Trip

Land In San Francisco And Will Tour United States, Then Go To England

(International News Service) SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 1.—(Walling through mud in Turkey—Travelling 14 miles in 14 hours in Syria—Rescuing an aged Irish prospector from starvation Christmas Day in the wilds of Australia—Wilting under temperatures of 132 in the shade in India—Nearly a year of travelling around the world in an auto truck for the sake of adventure.

Reveals Highlights
Her arm held in a splint, Miss Leila Roosevelt, distant relative of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and also of former President Theodore Roosevelt today related some of the highlights of the daring trek taken by her and Miss Edna Olmsted.

Miss Roosevelt is the daughter of Andrew Roosevelt, explorer and first cousin of Theodore Roosevelt.

With her sat her husband, Armand Denis, film director and jungle explorer, who met her on her arrival here from Australia.

As she was about to demark from the Matson Liner Mariposa she slipped and broke an arm.

"We're not through travelling yet."

either," said Miss Roosevelt. "We are going to drive down to Los Angeles in the truck and then start across the country to New York and eventually to England to join my four children.

Proof For Husband

"Mr. Denis will accompany us as far as Los Angeles, but from there Miss Olmsted and I will go it alone."

The reason for the trip, Miss Roosevelt said, was to prove to her husband that it could be done by two unaccompanied women. The thrill of it, too, was a big lure.

The two women set out on a freighter from New York and went to Antwerp where their truck, fully equipped for camping, was unloaded and they started to travel.

When the trip was ended they had crossed Belgium, France, Italy, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Turkey, India, Malay Peninsula, Java, Batavia and Australia.

Junior Hadassah Plans Conference

Young Jewish Women Of Western Pennsylvania Will Meet For Two Days In April

Miss Rheba Frank, 311 East Lincoln avenue, vice president of the Western Pennsylvania Regional of Junior Hadassah, has been named as Conference Chairman for the Region's annual conference to be

Under the presidency of Miss Eva Goldberg of Steubenville, Ohio, the Regional has functioned very efficiently this past year to further Junior Hadassah's work through this section. The Regional has demonstrated how well a purely voluntary group of girls can discipline themselves into action of many sorts, social, educational, and financial in the fostering of a Zionist consciousness in the youth of this Region.

Miss Frank is now engaged in planning the program for this two day conference and expects to announce her chairmans of the various committees shortly.

T. B. Streams of the bureau of animal industry, Harrisburg, was at the county commissioners office today checking up on the number of dog licenses issued this year, and comparing them with the number issued last year. Indications are that there are from 1500 to 2000 dogs without licenses in Lawrence county.

Mr. Streams stated that he proposes to make a check up in the city of New Castle. This will be done by a house to house canvass of persons who had dogs last year. In the work he will call upon Wylie Brewster, agent in this district. Mr. Streams said that it is not the desire of the department to impose unnecessary hardships on dog owners, but the situation has reached the point where something must be done.

Dog owners were supposed to have secured licenses by January 15 and now more than a month has elapsed and the law has been ignored. It is Mr. Streams intention to give everybody a fair chance, consequently he will not begin the canvass in this city for about ten days. After that time it is proposed to make information against those who have failed to take out licenses. Some work along this line has already been done by Mr. Brewster, but it does not appear to have had the desired effect. Therefore more stringent rules are to be enforced.

Prothonotary R. M. Campbell has made out a list of cases for argument at the March term of quarter sessions court. The list is as follows: Jim Beshero against Charlie Jim, motion for new trial; W. J. Welker against Charles F. Morrow, motion for new trial; Robert A. Eckles against Albert L. Johnson, motion for new trial; David Pitzer against Nicholas Frasso, for new trial; Mrs. Caroline Davidson against Standard Brands, Inc., for new trial; Baldwin Piano company against Julius Sypher, for new trial and judgment N. O. V.; Gilbert E. Long, trustee, against Sam Klafter, for new trial; New Castle Hardware company against McComb's Dairy company, for new trial; Commercial Credit company against Universal Sales company, petition to open judgment; Universal Sales company against C. J. Carlson, petition to open judgment; Lawrence Savings & Trust company against Thorson company, stated case; William M. Bender against John Endress, petition to open judgment; Rosa Rosen against Gertrude Burdick, in equity. Quarter sessions, commonwealth against Hyman Aronsen, motion for new trial.

Indications are that there will be a big attendance at court when the Croton avenue viaduct proposition is laid before the grand jury. The public works administration has already granted a loan for this project. The county of Lawrence must issue bonds for the amount of the loan, less the grant. The bonds will bear interest at four per cent.

Whether or not the viaduct will be built hinges on the action of the grand jury. Those who are pushing the project will call witnesses to show the advantages of the viaduct, and those who are opposed to it will

Anniversary Mass For Rev. Donatelli

Anniversary Mass Will Be Celebrated Friday Morning In St. Vitus Church

Friday morning in the St. Vitus church, a solemn requiem mass for the repose of the soul of Rev. Fr. Anthony Donatelli, assistant pastor of the St. Vitus church, who was killed on March 2, 1933, in Beaver county in an automobile accident, will be celebrated at 10:00 o'clock. The services are being given by Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, pastor of the church.

Rev. Fr. Donatelli, who was well liked in New Castle, was returning to New Castle from Midland, on March 2, when the automobile he was riding in, toppled over.

Rev. Nicholas DeMita, will be the celebrant of the mass; Rev. Fr. Sebastian Ippolito of Mahoningtown, the deacon; Rev. Fr. N. Pirullo, of Hillsville, will act as sub-deacon and Rev. Fr. Albert Farina, assistant pastor of the St. Vitus church, will be the master of ceremonies.

Rev. Fr. Vincent Galliano, of Ellwood City, will play the organ, sing the office and the mass. Several other priests from surrounding towns will assist. The St. Vitus church is expected to be crowded to capacity. The services Friday morning will commence promptly at 10:00 o'clock.

Employment In State Boosted

Prosperity Boom In Anthracite Coal Fields Causes Employment Jump In State

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Mar. 1.—The prosperity boom in the anthracite field has shoved employment in Pennsylvania up 9.9 per cent at mid-January as compared with the same period last year, the department of labor and industry reported today. Peak production in the hard coal district due to the excessive demands for coal because of the extreme winter caused anthracite employment to jump 17.6 per cent and payrolls to increase 65.2 per cent in January over December, 1933.

The sensational advances made by anthracite coal, however, did not completely curb the slump in manufacturing industrial employment for the state and the mid-January figure showed a drop of 2.2 per cent over mid-December. Payrolls in January were up four per cent despite the employment decrease.

DISSENSION CAUSES SPANISH CABINET TO FALL

Reach Climax In Spanish Trouble

Suppression Of Liberal Elements Of Republic Causes New Crisis

RELIGIOUS FUNERALS CAUSE CONTROVERSY

(International News Service)
MADRID, Mar. 1.—Bringing to a climax political difficulties with which it has been struggling for several weeks, the Spanish cabinet resigned today.

Internal dissension on the cabinet which was formed last December 17 by Premier Alexander Lerroux, radical, was blamed as the immediate cause of the crisis.

Underlying the situation, however, were grave problems growing out of the government's suppression of the liberal elements by which the republic was founded, and socialists, as well as anarchists and communists, openly have threatened revolution in recent weeks.

Three Stand Firm

Minister of the interior Martinez Barrios, head of the leftist group in the radical party, was reported ready to resign yesterday. Minister of finance Antonio Lara and ministers of public works Rafael Guerra Del Rio was known to be in sympathy with him.

The three stood firm in their anti-clerical program which was largely responsible for a recent government decree requiring an official permit for religious funerals. The decree grants power to municipal officials including many socialists and anti-Catholics, to prohibit religious funerals. The Catholic protested strongly against the decree and Gil Robes, leader of the Catholic popular actionists, who have a majority in the cortex, was understood to have demanded the resignation of the three ministers.

New Program Of Relief Planned

Roosevelt And Hopkins Work Out New Program To Give Relief To Needy

ENORMOUS SUMS ARE PROVIDED

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Coincident with the demobilization of the CWA, set for mid-May, President Roosevelt and Federal Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins have completed a new program for carrying on the work of relief for needy and unemployed, it was announced today.

They believe that the $950,000,000 recently supplied by congress will be sufficient to carry on until the end of this fiscal year, June 30, and the new fiscal year which starts July 1. Half a billion dollars has been allotted for the new fiscal year.

While details remain to be worked out, the president revealed today that the relief population after CWA is demobilized will be classified in three groups: (1) distressed families in farm areas; (2) so-called "stranded" elements in small communities where industries have disappeared or languished; and (3) unemployed in the large cities.

Rural Relief

The program of attack on the problems of the rural needy, Mr. Roosevelt explained, was a part of the agricultural program. Efforts to help these people will be directed towards removing them from dependence upon a single cash crop. The aim will be to bring these farmers into a program of diversified crops. A White House statement described this effort as follows:

"Relief funds, therefore, will be extended on behalf of rural families in a manner and to an extent, that will enable them to achieve self-support. Work for wages from relief funds is not an essential part of this phase of the program, and will be provided only insofar as it is necessary to accomplish the primary objective . . ."

Some of the methods to be employed in this relief phase include building, provision of seed and stock, and opportunities to earn cash incomes through part time or seasonal employment in small industrial enterprises. There will also be a planned distribution of highway work, and other public works, in agricultural communities.

Solution of the relief program for the so-called "stranded" population lies in removing them to other localities.

In the city areas, the president said, work relief would be offered wherever possible, but that where no work could be provided direct relief would be necessary. The president said the various municipal organizations in the country would be asked to plan work programs, and that the relief would be carried forward by providing work relief for the needy only.

Not Over Six Months.

"Work will be given to an individual for a period not to exceed six months," said the White House statement. "This is in order that it may not be considered, or utilized, as a permanent method of support. Every effort will be made to continue opportunities for work for the professional groups in need—teachers, engineers, architects, nurses and others."

Mr. Roosevelt explained that the percentage of federal money, compared to state and municipal funds, which would be thrown into the relief program, has not yet been worked out. Wherever possible, the cities and states will be expected to carry their share of the burden. In some cases, however, the federal contribution will necessarily run high.

COLDER IN 1906 SAYS ALDERMAN FROM SOUTH SIDE

"The winter of 1906 was much colder than this winter's cold spell," Alderman J. Lee Cooper, of East Long avenue, a resident here for more than 50 years, stated this morning, when asked what he thought of the weather.

In 1906, there were numerous mornings colder than the one New Castle experienced Wednesday, the aged South Side squire said. In the city the thermometer jumped down to 28 and 30 degrees below. Due to the front end of the street cars being opened, the conductors were the hardest hit during this severe cold spell, Mr. Cooper said.

"February was the coldest month of any winter month I have ever seen," the alderman concluded.

How times change! In Lincoln's day, the brethren paid their preacher "in good merchantable whiskey." Now they don't pay him anything.

Five Point Program For Education Given Approval By Leaders

By S. CARLYLE ADAMS
International News Service
Special Correspondent

CLEVELAND, O., Mar. 1.—Commending President Roosevelt and congress for their efforts to abolish child labor and to safeguard child health, the 6,000 members of the department of superintendence of the National Education Association on Wednesday adopted a five-point program for American education, demanding that the control of schools be completely removed from political and class influence.

These policies were contained in the official resolutions of the body adopted at the annual convention here. The resolutions were presented by Dr. E. E. Oberholzer who, tomorrow, will become the new president of the Department of Superintendence, comprising city and state public school officials and college administrators from all parts of the country.

Five Point Program

The five point program, designated as the new American educational program, is summarized, briefly as follows:

1. An opportunity for every child to receive educational training in school from early childhood to the age at which employment "is socially desirable" and for continued adult education as social conditions require.

2. For every classroom a competent teacher who shall be maintained on an economic level sufficient to render broad professional service.

3. For every school system a school board that is independent of political and class control, "responsive to the will of the people, with freedom to develop efficiently, economically, and impartially all policies in support of an adequate school program.

4. Adequate revenues from a properly adjusted tax system, sufficient to support the school program without restricting adequate opportunities for all children.

5. State support of schools, supplemented by non-control federal aid sufficient to permit every district to maintain an acceptable minimum program of education, yet safeguarding local initiative and autonomy in every local district which can function effectively in the conduct of its schools.

It was the sentiment of the school heads that if federal support is given to poverty-stricken school districts, a safeguard must be provided that educational freedom must not be hampered.

Police Radio Car System Demonstration Is Given

Mayor Charles B. Mayne and city police Wednesday were given a demonstration in police radio broadcasting by L. P. Clark and H. B. Hamilton. The city proposes to purchase a police radio system and three automobiles in which the transmitters will be installed, in the near future.

The transmitter was located in an automobile in Sycamore way, rear of the city building annex and the car which contained the receiver, was driven through Sycamore way, north on North Mercer street, west on Grant street, south on North Jefferson street, to the public square thence through East Washington and East streets back to Sycamore alley.

On one of the trips a News police reporter accompanied Sergeant Grover Syling. The fact that the car containing the receiver traveled through alleys and through thoroughfares carrying trolley wires did not affect the reception. The messages were distinct and uninterrupted by static. There was a slight "cackle" which was caused, it was explained, by the antenna which was only 28 feet high. It should be 125 under normal operations, it was said.

While Wayne Sines, a licensed operator, occupied the "transmitting station" Hamilton broadcast. The transmitter operates quite simply. With the aid of the remote control unit the broadcaster merely threw a switch and his voice was heard plainly. The receiver is small and can be controlled by a switch located on the steering wheel. Messages from other stations cannot interrupt the local messages, it is said, because the system will be arranged for the area covered.

It is probable that another demonstration will be held here as Chief of Police John Haven is confined to his home by illness. The chief is an ardent supporter of police radio systems. For two months some members of the department of police have been studying for positions as operators when the radio is installed.

Council made an appropriation for a police radio system and three automobiles when the 1934 budget was compiled.

Two Buildings To Be Remodelled

Neil Williams, clerk at the city bureau of building, city hall has granted permits to the State Capital Savings & Loan Association and Zehner Brothers for remodeling of buildings here. The former will remodel the Jefferson hotel in South Jefferson street at a cost of $700 and Zehner Bros. will remodel the building for storeroom purposes at the north-west corner of North Mill and East Washington street. The estimated cost there is placed at $1800.

Alas! When the boys begin to soak the rich, some of them remember how rich Uncle Sam is.

Correct this sentence: "Your week-old infant," said the bachelor, "is a beautiful little thing."

Accused Youth
To Be ExtraditedDavis Refuses To Return To Pennsylvania Voluntarily, Is ReportIS CHARGED WITH SHOOTING OFFICER

(International News Service)
CARLYLE, Ill., March 1.—Thomas A. Davis, 19-year-old Pittsburgh, Pa., youth who confessed officers declare that he killed State Highway Patrolman Herber Brantlinger at Bridgeville, Pa., on the night of September 3, last, today had declared he would refuse to waive extradition to Pennsylvania to stand trial for the murder.

Sheriff J. D. Erlinger of Clinton county said today that he had learned from State Police Captain John Funk and Lieut. Charles A. Keller of Harrisburg, Pa., who are here to return Davis to Pennsylvania that a Pennsylvania grand jury is expected to indict Davis "within a week" after which officers expect to get extradition papers for Davis return. The Pennsylvania officers will remain here until the extradition papers have been issued, according to Erlinger.

Officer Brantlinger was shot to death when he caught a youth stealing gasoline from a filling station.

SCANDAL AND PRAISE
"This strange how sticks a tale of shame!
How quickly fades the kindly word!
Last evening when to tea I came
She asked me just what news I'd heard."

Now one there was that morn dropped in
With scandal to entrance my ear
He told a tale of sordid sin
Which men were spreading far and near.

All day I kept it in my mind
The damage done, the seeds of doubt
So firmly planted there I find
That never shall I root them out.

But there's a curious fact: that day
Somebody stopped me in the hall
To praise a friend who'd smoothed his way.

No what he said I can't recall.
I could remember word for word
The slanderous story false or true
But had forgotten all I'd heard
About the decent things men do.

Is it that scandal burns so deep Into our minds that we retain
The worst of men, and fail to keep The words of praise that sometimes gain?

A liberal isn't like a Dangerous Radical. He cusses the rich without mentioning any names.

Leaders Of Girl Scout Troops Have Meeting Wednesday

Twenty-two leaders of Girl Scout troops in New Castle met Wednesday evening in the council chambers of the city building. It was the regular monthly meeting of the Girl Scout Leaders' association.

Mrs. Sidney Smith was in charge of the business meeting. Reports of various committees were submitted and plans were laid for the spring months.

The balance of the evening was turned over to the supervision of Miss Frances Carlin and Mrs. Andrew Dadds and was devoted to "art-craft". The leaders were helped and advised by Miss Carlin and Mrs. Dadds in making lovely notebooks.

The next meeting will be on March 28, the place to be announced later. Mrs. George Ferver will be in charge of "star study".

Steam is nice, but an open fire is so much more convenient when the Senate investigates you.

"Two things
I wanted—

"...more strength and a clear skin."
It is well to remember that a probable reason why you do not have red lips, rosy cheeks, a clear skin, good health, energy and cheerfulness is that your blood is in a run-down condition. Lack of hemo-glo-bin, the red-coloring of the blood, may also cause a weakened condition of the body...loss of strength...poor appetite.

Neglect of diet, worry, overwork, colds or sickness, frequently break down and retard the natural development of the red-blood-cells and their oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin.

Why not set in motion the rebuilding of these precious blood-cells instead of procrastinating and sacrificing your appearance and the feeling of being well and fit?

If your condition suggests a tonic of this kind, try S.S.S. It is not just a so-called tonic but a tonic specially designed to stimulate gastric secretions, and also having the mineral elements so very, very necessary in rebuilding the oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin of the blood. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon notice a pick-up in your appetite...your color and skin should improve with increased strength and energy.

S.S.S. is truly a blood and body tonic. Its value has been proven by generations of use, as well as by modern scientific appraisal.
You will find S.S.S. at all drug stores in two sizes...the larger is more economical. © TAC S.S.S. Co.

Few Pennsylvania
Farmers Agree To Cut Down Wheat Acreage

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent,
New Castle News
WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 1.—Pennsylvania farmers apparently have shown but little enthusiasm for the wheat reduction program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

The Adjustment Administration reported today that for the 1930-1932 period an average of 954,700 acres of land had been seeded in wheat in the Keystone state. Farmers representing only about nine per cent of this, or 88,299 acres have signed crop reduction agreements. This leaves 865,771 acres still to be covered by reduction contracts.

The Administration has reopened the wheat program and hopes many additional Pennsylvania wheat farmers will sign. The percentage acreage covered thus far of wheat reduction agreements is lower in Pennsylvania than all but five of the large wheat producing states. Acreage embraced by such reduction contracts amounts to 35 per cent in Ohio and 29 per cent in West Virginia.

SEVENTH WARD
NEWS*OVER HUNDRED FROM HERE SENT FOR NEW CARDS LAST MONDAY

A check-up at the Mahoningtown postoffice reveals that the peak in the number of money orders sent to the department of revenue at Harrisburg was reached on Monday.

Over 100 local people sent for their 1934 drivers' licenses on that day and since then between 50 and 75 money orders have been sent to Harrisburg daily from the Mahoningtown postoffice.

The 1934 drivers' licenses are necessary today in order that car owners may operate their vehicles.

WARNS MOTORISTS
Corporal L. J. Lawton of the state highway patrol, in charge of the New Castle station, stated at the office of Alderman H. G. Coates this week that beginning today a rigid lookout will be made in this district for motorists operating their cars without 1934 drivers' licenses. The old cards were valid yesterday.

DELIVER AT OAKLAND
The Mahoningtown postoffice has expanded its mail delivery territory to take in the district known as Oakland, bordering Atlantic avenue. One of the local carriers makes the trip by foot every day. This territory was formerly cared for by carriers from rural route No. 6.

PENNA-BO MEETS
A business meeting of the Penna-Bo Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen was conducted on Wednesday afternoon at the city hall. After routine matters were taken care of movement was made to adjourn until the next regular meeting date March 14.

PARTS OF ROUTE BAD
Snowdrifts and ice have made Mahoningtown rural route No. 8 a tough one for Carrier Jesse Boak to cover each morning. The delivery has been taking several hours longer

"...and it was all so simple...my physician said I had no organic disease, but I did have what is so commonly and truthfully called a low percentage of hemo-glo-bin in the blood. It didn't take S.S.S. very long to get my blood back up to normal...and as my strength and energy returned my skin cleared up."

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Mar. 1.—"I am ready; I must go ahead and prove my innocence."

With these words, uttered through thin, pale lips, Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynkoop today prepared to take the witness stand in criminal court to deny the state charges that she killed her daughter-in-law, Rheta, on an operating table last Nov. 21.

The prominent 63-year-old physician said she was ready to tell her complete story of the strange murder that occurred in the darkened Wynkoop manse and how she discovered the almost nude body of Rheta with a bullet wound in the back.

Defense attorneys said they would ask frequent recesses that the enfeebled doctor might withstand the ordeal on the witness stand and contribute the principal testimony in her own behalf. Her illness, acute arterio-sclerosis, brought a sudden end to Dr. Wynkoop's first trial in January.

"There cannot be a question of physical ability," she said after a final conference with Defense Attorney W. W. Smith. "I must do it, that's all."

A Discovery that's Bringing Faster Relief to Millions
Here is quicker relief from pain—the fastest safe relief, it is said, ever known. This is due to a scientific discovery by which BAYER Aspirin starts "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

The illustration of the glass here tells the story. A Bayer tablet starts to disintegrate or dissolve—go to work—almost instantly. This means quick relief from pain—fewer last hours from headache, neuritis, rheumatism. And safe relief. For genuine Bayer Aspirin does not harm the heart.

When you buy, see that you get the genuine Bayer Aspirin. The best way is never to ask for aspirin by the name "aspirin" alone. But if you want Bayer Aspirin's quick relief always to say "BAYER Aspirin."

WHY BAYER ASPIRIN
WORKS SO FAST
Drop a Bayer Tablet in a glass of water. Note that BEFORE it touches bottom, it has started to disintegrate. What it does in this glass it does in your stomach. Hence its fast action.

Tin City Rovers Top Youngstown In League Game

Take Revenge On Youngstown By Score Of 35-31 In Thrilling Game

LAYCOCK STARS WITH 18 POINTS

Revenge is sweet, the Tin City Rovers found out at senior high floor last night as they upset the fast Youngstown Sheet & Tube team in a Penn-Ohio league game 35 to 31. It was a battle all the way with the Tin City team waging an uphill fight in the final two periods to overtake the Ohioans. It was the final home league game for the Frasersmen.

"Bud" Laycock was the outstanding star in the battle with 18 of the points to his credit with seven field goals and four fouls. Benedict and Gennock also played fine ball for the locals. Stanford was the big gun for the Youngstons with 10 points.

The score at the end of the first period was 8 to 7 in favor of the Tin City Rovers, and at the end of the first half it was 15-15, a tight ball game in which several sensational shots were made.

Laycock Stars.
The Youngstons drew away from the locals in the third period and led 26 to 23. In the fourth and final period the Tin City team drew away when Laycock started peppering the hoops with field goals, and the locals led 12 to 5 in the last session to take a 35 to 31 count.

In the Penn-Ohio league for the second half the Tin City Rovers won seven and lost three, which is a fine record considering the quality of the other teams in the league.

One of the biggest league crowds of the season witnessed the game last night. The fans evidently expected to see a rough game after what took place at Youngstown a few weeks ago, but the game turned out to be the cleanest on record this year. The game was well handled by Charles "Bub" Jones.

Amateur Ring Battles Friday

Adamo Hopes To Land Haymaker On Rodgers' Chin

FIVE OTHER SCRAPS AT HUMBERT HALL

Although Kid Zero Weather is not conducive to good crops the Cauliflower industry will make a spurt Friday night when an aggregation of amateur boxers exchange punches in half a dozen bouts at Humbert hall. No doubt some of the battlers will receive punches on their ears which if swollen and not cared for promptly will result in a cauliflower growth. But a scrapper who worries about a cauliflower or "tin ear" doesn't go places pugilistically so each of the 12 are ready for action which start at 8:30 p. m.

The two best looking fighters scheduled for action are Ray Atkinson and Joey Evans. Ray is scheduled to box a dark colored chap by the name of Eddie Douglas of Youngstown at 147 pounds and Joey will try conclusions with one Wallace Cappel, also of Youngstown, at 128 pounds. Each of the bouts are scheduled for five rounds, each round being limited to two minutes. Ray has boxed some good boys here. Evans has not dropped a decision in New Castle.

Tony Adamo of this city who once rollicked in the lap of fandom's popularity will oppose Johnny Rodgers of Youngstown at 147 pounds. Tony has twice ended up fouled but hopes to sink a haymaker on Rodgers in their coming embroilment. Jimmy Patton, of Youngstown will take on the comic Kid Sal of Farrell at 126 pounds and Pete Boy, Ellwood City will meet Johnny Vargo of Youngstown. Ray Gray, this city will take on Alex Lawn of Ellwood City, at 140 pounds in the opener.

Bill Swift, the big Pirate right-handed hurler expects that the Pirates and he will be able to adjust their squabble over his pay for 1934. He would like to leave with the Pirates second squad Monday for Paso Robles, Calif.

Homeowed Flirtations featured the opening day of the national bird dog championship field trials and the Ames preserve at Grand Junction, Tenn., Wednesday. The royal blooded pointer is owned by Homeowed Kennedy of Pittsburgh and was handled by F. E. Bevan of Waynesboro, Ga. Running with Mote Baird, a pointer owned by Captain N. D. Woodruff of Baltimore and handled by Willie Craig of Trevilians, Va., Homeowed Flirtations began finding her birds eight minutes after the dogs were put down. In all she discovered six bevels and added a point to her record by finding a woodcock. Mote Baird's attention was diverted when a small herd of deer charged ahead of him and he gave chase. And to add to his troubles he was kicked by a horse as he returned to the course. Rapid Transit A. G. C. Sage's pointer, defending champion, will go into action today with Jake Seavey Rex, a pointer owned by G. M. Livingston of New York.

Walt Pattison, a game protector of this city, is now stationed at Erie according to word from Herb Samuels. Pattison appeared as a spokesman recently before the Presque Isle Sportsmen who met for the purpose of securing united action against the Copeland firearms bill, the passage of which would seriously impose and effect hardships upon those who by their familiarity with these weapons are best prepared to cope with and give valuable assistance in the drives against organized gangsters. Pattison's talk concerned sportsmen's associations. He compared violations and arrests in organized and unorganized districts and he said there has been a change in attitude by hunters toward present protectors in comparison to the former so-called wardens.

Bridenbaugh-Boyd Pin Hopes In Fast Basketball Teams

When New Castle high and Union high basketball teams tangle at George Washington junior high Friday night in the first of a series of tourney games in the W. P. I. A. L., both teams will feature speedy attacks. The game will start at eight p. m., with no preliminary game. The league will send officials here to take charge of the game.

Union and New Castle play practically the same kind of basketball; that is, both feature speedy attacks, fast cutting plays, etc. Union will be at a disadvantage to a certain extent, of course, playing on the New Castle floor but the Unionites under Coach Davey Boyd have held several practice sessions at Washington high floor and have acquitted themselves very nobly. In fact, to quote Boyd, "My team looks better at the New Castle floor than they do in the Union gym."

Expect Good Game
This presages a good game Friday night, New Castle and Union should draw a large crowd. It is a natural, so close together here in Lawrence county. Union has compiled a very enviable record this year and so has New Castle. It will be a real tussle.

If this Union team is on they will be hard to beat. Union has two or three crack shots in Boron, Schaas and Morrison. Any of them may cause New Castle plenty of trouble. New Castle, on the other hand, will counter with Reber, Kelly and Ostrosky as sharpshooters.

Just who will referee the game is not known, and probably will not be known until game time Friday. The admission prices are 40 cents if the tickets are bought prior to the night of the game. If bought at the game they will be 50 cents per ticket. There has been a fine sale of tickets so far this week.

Waters In Florida Holds Keys In State Gubernatorial Mixup

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Mar. 1.—State Treasurer Charles A. Waters, tantalizingly absent in the Florida sunshine, today held one of the keys that can untangle the Republican gubernatorial primary mixup.

What Waters intends to do is a matter of intense speculation on Capitol Hill at the present time. There is virtually no agreement on his position, extreme explanations being that he is personally ambitious and determined to run or that he has no desire to be a candidate.

The treasurer will return to Philadelphia this week-end and to his desk here next week. Present indications are that he will have something to say early next week which might precipitate a quick solution of the G. O. P. kaleidoscope.

Whatever he intends to do, the fact remains that he has had his brother-in-law and secretary, Joseph Lord, obtain nominating petitions for him. Although these have not gone into circulation, the mere fact that they are on hand in Waters' office has served to cause the rest of the field to hold back and wait and watch.

This is particularly true of Attorney General William A. Schnader, and to some extent Lieut. Gov. Edward C. Shannon. Schnader, who is said to feel that he should make a definite decision on his reported candidacy within the next ten days, is hoping that Waters will chart his own course before then.

Shannon, it is said, would like to know which way the Waters support will turn if he should pull out of the race without designating a favorite. There are also reports that Shannon is waiting for Gen. Edward Martin, Republican state chairman, to make a withdrawal statement, endorsing Shannon.

The Judge Marion D. Patterson-for-governor boom in Blair county is taking on new importance in local political eyes, now that a group of township supervisors have openly endorsed the jurist and urged him to announce his candidacy.

The event was thoroughly enjoyed by the assemblage.

Rasputin's Slaying Revealed By Prince Of Czarist Russia

Prince Felix Youssouppoff Tells How He Killed "Mad Monk" In Petrograd Cellar

Is Testifying In Behalf Of Wife Against Film Company For Defamation

(International News Service)

LONDON, Mar. 1.—A breathless crowd in a packed courtroom today heard Prince Felix Youssouppoff tell how Rasputin, the "mad monk" of Russia, had tried to cure him of ill health by mesmerism.

To the suggestion he might have been under such a severe nervous strain at the time Rasputin was assassinated and that he did not know what he was doing, the prince replied:

"It's quite natural. I'm not a professional murderer."

Testifies For Wife

Prince Youssouppoff is testifying in the suit brought by his wife against a film company, claiming a motion picture depicting the life of Rasputin damaged her. The film company contends the character in the picture which Princess Youssouppoff claims portrayed her, is purely fictional.

Yesterday, Prince Youssouppoff told in starkly realistic fashion the grim story of the slaying of Rasputin in eighteen years ago in Petrograd cellar. Today, he continued the story of his dealings with Rasputin under cross examination by Sir William Jowitt, attorney for the defense.

Firmer Tone Appears But

WATCH CAPITAL
FOR DEVELOPMENTS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 1.—With new incentive lacking, the stock market today lapsed into lethargy with price changes as narrow as any seen this year.

A firmer tone developed after yesterday's late selling as no further pressure appeared in the early dealings. This, however, failed to stimulate buying.

Rails showed few changes of importance, and oils and utilities were quiet. Silver shares were somewhat higher while the rest of the listing list was dull.

Commodities failed to provide any impetus. Grains and cotton ruled a narrow range around the previous close. Bonds were quiet and the dollar firm.

Traders continued to watch developments in Washington where hearings on the market control bill are continued. Growing indications that the drastic measure could be modified were welcomed
it failed to bring new demand for stocks.

A few specialties forged ahead
while the general market marked time. Among these were the Pathe shares which went to new highs for the year.

Congress Refuses To Back Proposition For
U. S. Relief Factory

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Legislation drastically limiting government competition with private business may be enacted in the house during the present session, it was indicated today.

Signalling the sentiment of its members, the house crushed a proposal sponsored by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt that the government conduct a relief factory at Reedsville, W. Va.

Today the expenditures committee opened hearings on a bill by Rep. Shannon (D) of Missouri which would provide a new system of cost accounting and cost reports for all executive departments.

Shannon expressed the opinion that passage of his bill would drive
the opening wedge into the present system under which many federal executive departments, independent establishments, bureaus and agencies may furnish their required products by manufacturing them.

Under the proposed system of cost accounting, Shannon hopes to turn the searchlight of publicity on the amount of money taxpayers pour into the treasury to keep these government industries in operation.

Dern Opposed To More Planes For Air Corps

Secretary Of War Attacks Plan For Adding 3,000 Planes To Air Corps

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—Vigorous opposition of Secretary of War Dern to proposals to strengthen the military air force by establishing the army air corps as an independent body, giving it an additional 3,000 planes and improving the promotion system, was disclosed today in testimony and correspondence made public by the war department.

This data related to Dern's recent appearance before the closed sessions of the house military affairs committee in connection with legislative proposals for reorganizing the army air corps.

Signal Victory Dern declared he was so "unalterably opposed" to these "destructive proposals" that he was prepared to sacrifice entirely his department's suggestions for an additional 1,000 planes and creation of an emergency flying squadron of 900 planes, rather than risk any inference in air corps circles as a tremendous victory for the army general staff, which considers separation of the air corps as a threat to its existence.

Dern declared establishment of the air corps as an independent body and modification of the promotion system as proposed would result in favoritism, class distinction, embitterment of the ground forces and disunity of the land defense team.

Gives Opinions He said the 3,000-plane proposal would be "far beyond any sane estimates of our defense needs," and so cutly that it "could be construed by the world only as evidence either of ardent militarism or immediate war."

"There is no justification for removal of the air corps from the coordinating influence of the general staff," he testified.

"This separatist tendency is comparable to placing parts of a single football team under separate control," he testified.

"Unity of command over the same area in war, and unity of planning for combined operations in peace, and sacred commandments of national defense."

Pickets were quiet and orderly, police reported, confining their activities to words and songs.

Approval Sought For PWA Projects

Penna Advisory Board Sends Projects Totaling $29,521,418 To Washington

Twenty Armory Construction Projects Are Among Those Listed By State Board

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Mar. 1.—Public works administration projects totaling $29,521,418 today had been sent to Washington for approval by the state advisory board, which ceased to exist after its final meeting here yesterday afternoon.

The final list of projects was comprised of 46 commonwealth projects proposed for construction from the $14,000,000 grant the commonwealth seeks from the PWA and a group of 20 others including two toll bridges sponsored by the state highways department.

There is as yet no definite assurance the commonwealth will receive the $14,000,000 it seeks. Legal aides of the PWA are now studying the ramifications of the Scott act passed in the last special session to empower the state to participate in the PWA.

Plan Two Bridges.

The two bridges would both be located across the Susquehanna river in Lancaster county, one at Bainbridge estimated to cost $1,115,458 and the other at Holtwood, $1,095,595. Plans for a third toll bridge at Millersburg, Dauphin county, at an estimated cost of $1,115,458, were forwarded to Washington some time ago.

Although the state proposes to seek only $14,000,000 from the PWA, the state projects submitted totaled $18,288,185. They included, however, a proposed state finance building for the capital plaza estimated to cost $5,400,000 as an alternate project in case any of the others are rejected.

Exclusive of the finance building, the state PWA program, which the board said was practically all recommended for approval to Harold L. Ickes, PWA administrator, included 21 department of welfare projects, four proposed sanatoria for the department of health and 20 armory construction projects.

Applications other than those submitted by the commonwealth included: West Middlesex school district, Mercer county, $30,000.

HIT THAT COLD WHERE IT LIVES—in the System!

Don't fool yourself about a cold! It's nothing to be taken lightly nor treated lightly. A cold is an internal infection that will quickly spread within the system unless promptly checked. The wise thing to take for a cold is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine.

First of all, it is distinctly a cold remedy and not a "cure-all". Secondly, it is an internal treatment. Thirdly, it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels, combats the cold germs and fever in the system, relieves the headache and grippiness feeling and tones and fortifies the entire system. That's the treatment a cold requires and anything less is taking chances. All druggists sell Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine, 30c and 50c. Ask for it by the full name and reject a substitute.

Declines To Predict Relief Plan Effect In Lawrence County

President's New Program Of 'Flexible Public Works' May Alter Things

Dr. G. S. Bennett, head of the Lawrence county emergency relief board, declined today to predict what effect President Roosevelt's newly announced national relief program will have locally, primarily because "all I know about it is what I've seen in the papers."

At Washington the administration made known Wednesday a new three-way program of work relief which calls for a more carefully planned system of "flexible public works."

"Experience has taught us," Dr. Bennett commented, "not to make any comments, because we've found that almost overnight Washington has changed its mind about many of the relief plans. I'd better not make a prediction of what it will mean to Lawrence county."

Word of the new program is being awaited here. It will likely be days before the government contacts the Pennsylvania relief authorities who in turn relay word to county boards.

Welsh People Will Celebrate St. David Day

Patron Saint Of Wales Will Be Honored With Supper And Musical Program Friday

All plans are now completed for the St. David's Day celebration at the First Congregational church, East Reynolds street, Friday evening, March 2.

The activities will begin with a bounteous supper served by the women of the Willing Workers class from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. and at 8:15 the concert will begin in the church auditorium.

Robert Johns, baritone soloist of the First Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, will be the featured artist. In addition to being a church soloist, Mr. Johns is also a radio favorite.

Thomas Jones, a young attorney of Pittsburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones of Hornaday road, will appear on the program also as a speaker.

This celebration is not alone for the Welsh folks, but for any who may wish to attend and from all indications the meeting will rival the pre-depression banquets with which St. David's Day was formerly commemorated.

He asked this power be granted him for three years.

The message will be sent to congress either today or tomorrow. The president wants the power to raise or lower tariffs 50 per cent as he sees fit. Such authority, however, would not permit him to change the free list.

Don't take calomel! HERE'S NEW HEALTH FOR YOUR LIVER

Now banish bad breath, pimples, constipation; feel like a million!

That tired, frowsy feeling in the morning, that "dark-brown" taste in the mouth—if you would banish them and win back buoyant health, don't expect relief from salts, mineral oil, or candy and chewing-gum laxatives.

What you need is something which acts thoroughly but harmlessly upon the liver. And in Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets you will find that "something," which stimulates the bile flow.

A successful substitute for calomel, these famous tablets are compounded of pure vegetable ingredients, and have been praised for years by millions.

To get and keep the bile flowing freely—correcting constipation, skin troubles, and win back that "fine-and-dandy" feeling of youth—go to your druggist for Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets today, 15c, 30c, 60c.
